

Steps to use the system.

Enable the xampp ports.

Run the index.php file.

For first time users click on register to save the details of the user.

After registration you would be returned back to the home page.

Now go for login, if all the criteria are fulfilled then a successful message would be displayed.